MAX WILLIAMS

Max Williams is a young man with one foot in the front office and the other on the pressure-packed sidelines of the ABA. The dual role of General Manager and Coach of the Chaparrals has the 32-year old former All-America basketball player from SMU doing double duty.

However, this is nothing new to Max, who has been doing double duty ever since he became involved with the Chaparrals back in 1967, the founding year of the ABA. At various times in the Club's three-year history he has been whatever he needed to be to keep the club running—publicity director, operations manager, chief scout, promotion head, trainer, general manager, and now head coach.

The coaching duties descended on the West Texas shoulders of Williams last season when Cliff Hagan resigned on January 14, 1970. Under Williams, the Chaps quickly became the highest scoring team in the ABA, reeled off a club record of eight straight victories, and finished second in the Western Division. Although the Chaps lost out in the first round of the playoffs, Williams remained optimistic about the talent's of his club and the chances for success in the 1970-71 season. "I am confident we will have a good team this year, a team that's going to score and win, a team that I think will offer a few surprises."

It's a fast pace being involved in the administrative end of a pro franchise and even more hectic leading a team through a 84-game schedule. It takes a rather outstanding individual to meet the challenge.

Everything about Max Williams' basketball career has been outstanding. He came out of West Texas after scoring more than 4,000 points in four years at Avoca High School, a record that still stands in Texas schoolboy record books. At Southern Methodist University, Williams was named All-Southwest Conference three times and led the Mustangs to a SWC Championship. He was an All-America choice his senior year.

Between 1960 when he graduated from SMU at the age of 22 and 1967 when he joined the Chaps, Williams was a successful insurance salesman, president of a construction company by age 24, and at 27, headed a group buying metals in Northern Mexico. At 28, he was absorbed into the mainstream of the new pro basketball league that was struggling to succeed against the NBA. Max, at this time, was the youngest general manager in pro sports and is presently the youngest coach in pro basketball.

Even when not involved in business, Max keeps a fast pace. He is an all-around sportsman—a low handicap golfer, hunter and fisherman. During the summer while fishing off the Mexican coast, Williams landed a giant sailfish, which now adorns his office wall.

Max and his family, the former Carolyn Cooper of Plainview, son Wayne, 9, and daughter, Laura, 4, reside in North Dallas. The family also includes an energetic 2-year old minature poodle named Caesar.

It's a big year in the making for Max Williams as he plunges into another season. In fact, it's just like the old days when he was leading the fast break at Avoca and SMU—Williams right in the middle and everything moving swiftly.

L. D. LEWIS

The Assistant General Manager and operations chief of the Lubbock and Fort Worth offices of the Chaps is L. D. Lewis. Lews has been a long-time sport figure in the Dallas/Fort Worth area. Lewis came to the Chaparra's from Texas Stadium where he was bonding agent during the past three years. Prior to his association with the Cowboys' Stadium, he was in baseball in the Dallas/Fort Worth area for 22 years serving as business manager of the Ft. Worth Cats and as general manager for the Dallas/Ft. Worth Spurs. Before joining the Cowboys' organization, he served one year as general manager of the Little Rock Arkansas Travelers in the St. Louis Cardinal organization. Lewis and his wife, the former Susie McLeod of McKinney, and daughter, Lee Ann, presently make their home in Richardson.

BILL BLAKELEY

Bill Blakeley former athletic director and basketball coach at Christian College of the Southwest joined the Texas Chaparrals in April of 1970 as Business Manager and Assistant Coach. During his four years at CCS, the Trojans compiled an .839 winning percentage with a won-lost record of 125 wins and 24 losses. Blakeley was a runner-up for the Texas Junior College Coach of the Year in 1967-68 after his team won the Region 5 Championship and finished 9th in the National Junior College Tournament.

Blakeley began his coaching career in 1957 at St. Mark's High School in Dallas, Texas, as assistant basketball coach. He became head coach in 1958 and in the next eight years at St. Marks, compiled a won-lost percentage of .726 winning 210 games and losing only 79. Blakeley's teams won four State Championships and his last year posted a record of 33 wins and 1 loss.

Bill is married to the former Rosemary Harlow whom he met at Abilene Christian College where she was a cheerleader and he was captain of the basketball team. They are the parents of two sons; Robin, age 13, and Jeff, age 8. They also have a daughter Julie, age 11. Blakeley has a B.S. from A.C.C. and a M.ED. from North Texas State University.

E. O. "DOC" HAYES

E. O. "Doc" Hayes is starting his second year with the Chaparrals as Director of Player Scouting. For 35 years, the "good doctor" has been winning championships in Texas high schools and at Southern Methodist University where he was head coach for 22 seasons. Now Hayes is helping the Chaps build a championship team. He spends his time scouting the opposition and tracking down college talent. There was no one more perfect for the scouting job than "Doc" Hayes when General Manager Max Williams started looking around a year ago. Hayes was just retired from his great career at SMU where he compiled an unmatched record in the Southwest Conference. Doc's teams won or shared in a record eight Southwest Conference crowns. When Doc Hayes is not talking basketball he is usually telling some anecdote or jokes of which he has an endless supply. Doc's humor and knowledge have made him one of the best liked and most respected basketball figures in Texas. Hayes is a native of Crum, Texas, and a graduate of North Texas State. He is married to the former Kathleen Lockhart of Tyler, Texas. The Hayes have two sons, John and Dick, and seven grandchildren.

TERRY STEMBRIDGE

The 1970-71 broadcast schedule of Texas Chaparral basketball again includes the play-by-play of all exhibition and regular season games. In the past three years, over 300 broadcasts have been aired on KRLD, 1080, the "Voice of Pro Basketball in the Southwest." The Coca-Cola Bottling Company of Dallas and Braniff International have purchased major radio rights for the entire season. Terry Stembridge will be starting his fourth season as the Voice of the Chaparrals. He is one of only two sportscasters who date back to the first ABA season. In fact, Terry has announced more games than any other announcer in the league, not having missed a single game in the Club's history. Terry is a former school teacher from Kilgore, Texas, who joined the team in August of 1967. He is married to the former Cheryl Runnels of Gilgore. They now live in Dallas.

KRLD again will be the primary outlet for Chaparral play-by-play broadcasts.

RUSS FAGAN

Busy Russ Fagan, 34, has been of immeasurable help in keeping the Chaparral organization running smoothly. Russ, founder of the Dallas Independent Press, a weekly newspaper, and his own public relations firm, serves the Chaparrals as director of special projects. His duties are many and he never fails to respond with great energy and enthusiasm. When he is not concerned with the Chaps, Russ spends time with his newspaper which recently merged with the Post Tribune, another Dallas newspaper. Fagan is married to the former Delores Robinson, and they have a daughter Ruschelle, 13, and a son Don, 5. Young Don is a fixture at the Chaparrals games, taking part in all the shooting contests and serving as ball boy for the team.

JOHN LALLY

Chaparral trainer, John Lally, 26, is one of only two ABA trainers who date back as far as the first year of the ABA. Lloyd Williams of Denver and Lally are the sole survivors of that first year when not all of the Clubs in the league employed a trainer. Lally, after working under Elmer Brown at T.C.U., spent four years with the Chicago Cubs baseball organization. He worked with the Dallas/Ft. Worth Spurs and then the San Antonio Missions before becoming associated with the Chaparrals fulltime. In addition to keeping the players patched up and ready to go, Lally is entrusted with transportation arrangements when the team is on the road. Single, John originally from Fort Worth, now makes his home in Dallas.

JOHN MICHAEL BEASLEY

"John" Age: 26 Height: 6-9 Weight: 230

Born in Texarkana, Ark., on Feb. 5, 1944.

Residence: Dallas, Tex.

College: Texas A & M (1966).

Pro Experience: 3 years in ABA, all with Texas.

How Acquired: Signed as free agent in 1967.

At the start of his fourth season with the Texas Chaparrals, 6-foot, 9-inch John Beasley has all the credentials for Super-Stardom in the American Basketball Association.

The three-time All-Southwest Conference great from Texas A & M has played all but one of the Chaparrals' 240 regular season games and would have been in that one if Coach Cliff Hagan hadn't decided to rest him for the start of the playoffs by holding him out of the final game of the 1967-68 campaign.

During that time, Beasley has compiled the following impressive career statistics:

—Scored 4,559 points, an average of 19.1 per game, with a single-game high of 45 against the Floridians at Miami, Fla., March 22, 1970.

—Pulled down 2,818 rebounds, an average of 11.8 per game.

—Been voted the Most Valuable Player in the ABA's second annual All-Star Game at Louisville, Ky., Jan. 28, 1969, by scoring 19 points and grabbing 14 rebounds in a 133-127 West victory over the East.

Personal Highlights: Played for Phillips 66 Oilers in 1966-67 and won AAU All-America honors . . . Holds B.A. Degree from Texas A & M where he was listed as a distinguished student . . . Married to former Janice Mills of Linden, Tex. . . . Has 7-year-old daughter, Kim.

ROBERT GEORGE BEDELL

"Bob" Age: 26 Height: 6-8 Weight: 210

Born in Los Angeles, Calif., on June 26, 1944.

Residence: Bell Gardens, Calif.

College: Stanford (1966).

Pro Experience: 3 years in ABA, last two with Texas.

How Acquired: Trade with Denver in 1968.

Bob Bedell takes sitting on the bench in stride. And that's the reason he's considered one of the most vital cogs in the explosive Chaparral point machine.

Last year, for instance, the 6-foot, 8-inch Bedell saw action in 80 of the team's 84 games while averaging just over 19 minutes of playing time. But he averaged 9.7 points and 5.7 rebounds.

"I don't mind being a substitute," Bedell explains. "Eventually, I get my chance."

Those chances usually come when Coach Max Williams needs someone to "pick up" the offense and "get something going." Bedell has been unusually effective in his special role.

He has a quick jump shot that's deadly from 20 feet, can wrestle for a rebound with the best, has "sneaky" speed that makes him a good lead man on the fast break and plays a tenacious defense.

He's not expected to crack the starting lineup this year, either. But Williams is glad he has him on the bench.

Personal Highlights: One of all-time leading scorers at Stanford . . . Married to former Marilyn Robison of Powderly, Ky.

RONALD BOONE

"Ron" Age: 25 Height: 6-3 Weight: 200

Born in Oklahoma City, Okla., on Sept. 6, 1946

Residence: Omaha, Neb.

College: Idaho State University (1968)

Pro Experience: 2 years in ABA, both with Texas

How Acquired: Eighth round draft choice in 1968

When Coach Max Williams says he's expecting "more" of Ron Boone this season, it's enough to raise a few eyebrows.

The 6-foot, 3-inch Boone has had two outstanding years since joining the Chaparrals as an unheralded eighth round draft choice in 1968.

He's played 162 consecutive games, scored 2,641 points — an average of 16.3 per game, been credited with 551 assists and pulled down 760 rebounds. For awhile, he held tne club record with 32 consecutive free throws and had a 24-point quarter against the Houston Mavericks at Dallas on April 3, 1969.

But Boone has fantastic talent and Williams is hoping he can get him playing nearer his full potential.

Boone has filled many roles for the Chaparrals. Two years ago, he jumped right into the starting lineup and was chosen to the American Basketball Association's All-Rookie Team. Last season, he alternated with Charlie Beasley as a starter, but also proved his value coming off the bench. In fact, Williams capitalized upon his jumping ability to use him at a forward post and get three guards in the lineup at one time.

Personal highlights: Honored by Omaha Urban League along with pitcher Bob Gibson of the St. Louis Cardinals for contribution to sports . . . Single.

GLEN COURTNEY COMBS

"Glen" Age: 24 Height: 6-2 Weight: 185

Born in Hazard, Ky., on Oct. 30, 1946

Residence: Roanoke, Va.

College: Virgina Tech (1968)

Pro Experience: 2 years in ABA, both with Texas

How Acquired: Seventh round draft choice in 1968

Glen Combs waited for his chance and, when it came, he made the most of it.

Used sparingly early in his rookie season, the 6-foot, 2-inch former Virginia Tech standout broke into the lineup on a cold, January night in Minneapolis and responded with a 34-point performance against the Minnesota Pipers. He's been a starter ever since.

Combs averaged 22 points during the second half of the 1968-69 campaign and came back last season to set Chaparral club records in scoring and playmaking. He tossed in 1,868 points, an average of 22.2 per game, and was credited with 342 assists, a 4.1 per game average.

One of the American Basketball Association's most proficient long distance marksmen, Combs has hit 214 of 603 3-point field goal attempts in his two years with the Chaparrals. Twice last season, he made five 3-pointers in one game.

"We drafted Glen specifically because he was a fine shooter," said former Chaparral Coach Cliff Hagan. "The fact he's able to do everything else so well has come as a pleasant surprise."

One of the most popular Chaparral players, Combs appears headed for certain stardom in the ABA.

Personal Highlights: Father is superintendent of schools at Carr Creek, Ky., after 25 years as basketball coach . . . Entered business with father-in-law as fruit broker in Roanoke, Va., last summer . . . Married to former Marsha McNeil of Roanoke.

WILLIE DAVIS

"Willie" Age: 25 Height: 6-8 Weight: 235

Born in Fairfield, Tex., on Aug. 9, 1945

Residence: Fort Worth, Tex.

College: North Texas State (1968)

Pro Experience: Rookie

How Acquired: Signed as free agent

Nobody gave Willie Davis a chance of making the Texas Chaparrals this season. Nobody, that is, except Willie Davis.

The likable 6-foot, 8-inch former North Texas State center started working out with the club in informal scrimmage sessions last July. He was invited to rookie camp in September, but Coach Max Williams actually tried to discourage him from coming back for the final eliminations with the veterans.

"He had earned a shot at it," Williams said, "but we just didn't think he could do it."

Now, Davis, who gave up a high school teaching job to try out with the Chaps, is very much a part of the team.

After winning All-Missouri Valley Conference honors in 1967-68, Davis was drafted by the Kentucky Colonels but he didn't make the squad. He tried again last year with the Pittsburgh Pipers, but was cut after being injured in training camp.

"I think his weight might be the key," Williams said. "He's trim at 235 pounds and handles himself well. He has a fine shooting touch from within 20 feet and is as aggressive under the basket as anyone in the league."

Personal Highlights: Pulled down 38 rebounds in final intrasquad rookie game this summer . . . Married, 2-year-old daughter, Kim.

THOMAS MEDARD HAGAN

"Tom" Age: 23 Height: 6-4 Weight: 185

Born in Louisville, Ky., on Jan. 29, 1947

Residence: Nashville, Tenn.

College: Vanderbilt (1969)

Pro Experience: 1 year, with Texas

How Acquired: No. 1 draft choice in 1969

Tom Hagan's rookie season with the Texas Chaparrals was marred by several bad breaks.

The 6-foot-4 Hagan was the Chaps' No. 1 draft choice in 1969 and joined the team a year ago with high hopes of breaking into the starting lineup.

Instead, he sprained his right ankle the second day of practice and hobbled on crutches during the fall training camp. Then, rejoining the team at the start of the regular season, he fractured the same ankle and was on crutches for six more weeks.

He made a determined comeback and had just worked his way into a role as one of the club's top backcourt reserves when the professional football season ended in mid-January. What effect could that have on a basketball player?

Only that Hagan's name was mistakenly slipped in with the pro gridders who take their six months of army reserve training at that time of the year and he, too, was called to active military duty, missing the remainder of the 1969-70 season.

Now, with his ankle healed and his military affairs in order, Hagan is back with the Chaparrals and looking very much like the outstanding prospect he was as a three-time All-Southeastern Conference guard at Vanderbilt.

Personal Highlights: All-State in high school at St. Xavier in Louisville, Ky. . . . Most Valuable Player in 1969 Hawaiian All-Star Tournament . . . B.A. Degree in history . . . Married to former Betty Carol McMilan of Nashville, Tenn.

JAMES HAMILTON, JR.

"Joe" Age: 22 Height: 5-10 Weight: 175

Born in Lexington, Ky., on July 5, 1948

Residence: Dallas, Tex.

College: North Texas State (1970)

Pro Experience: Rookie

How Acquired: Third round draft choice in 1970

"Joe Hamilton has what the Chaparrals have needed since their birth. He's exciting. He makes things happen."

E. O. (Doc) Hayes has seen a lot of basketball as coach of Southern Methodist University for 22 years and as director of player scouting for the Chaparrals. So, when he makes a statement like the one above, people pay attention.

Hamilton has a great preparatory career behind him as a Prep All-America in Lexington, Ky., as a two-time Junior College All-America at Christian College of the Southwest, as a two-time All-Missouri Valley Conference standout at North Texas State and as an alternate on the U.S. Olympic Team in 1968.

He has to stretch to reach 5-foot-10, but has been able to make up for his lack of heighth with great speed and quickness. He also has tremendous shooting range and will take a 3-pointer from 30 feet away if he's open.

During one brief spurt in a pre-season game, Joe scored eight points in 20 seconds. He hit a pair of 3-pointers, then stole the ball at midcourt and dribbled in for a layup.

Hamilton has leadership qualities the Chaparrals need in the backcourt. Coach Max Williams will be giving him every opportunity to put them to work.

Personal Highlights: Was coached in junior college by Chaparral Assistant Coach Bill Blakeley . . . Married to former Sheila Fox of Dallas . . . They have 3-year-old son, James, III.

RICHARD WESLEY JONES

"Rich" Age: 23 Height: 6-8 Weight: 230

Born in Memphis, Tenn., on Dec. 27, 1946

Residence: Dallas, Tex.

College: Memphis State (1969)

Pro Experience: 1 year in European League

How Acquired: Drafted in second round as "future" in 1968

The Texas Chaparrals have worked a long time to bring Rich Jones into the fold. But it appears as if the results will be worth the effort.

General Manager Max Williams drafted the 6-foot, 8-inch Jones as a "redshirt" in 1968, but didn't sign him when Rich elected to return to Memphis State for his final year of college eligibility. The next year, Williams tried again, but this time Jones decided to play a year at Ignis, Italy, in the European League.

Finally, late last season after Williams assumed the coaching duties of the Chaparrals, he persuaded Jones to return to the U.S. and join the Roadrunners. Rich made it in time for the last two games of the regular season and averaged 14.0 points and 11.5 rebounds.

This season, he's being counted upon as a front-line starter and has responded by leading the team in scoring during pre-season play. A rugged rebounder, he has a great quick pass to start the fast break and is a good defensive performer.

Personal Highlights: All-Big Ten at Illinois as sophomore before transferring to Memphis State . . . Starred on Italian team that had 60-3 record and won Cup of Europe . . . Married to former Martyna Haynes of Memphis . . . They have 5-month-old adopted son, Richard, Jr.

EMANUEL LEAKS, JR.

"Manny" Age: 24 Height: 6-8 Weight: 225

Born in Cleveland, Ohio, on Nov. 27, 1945

Residence: Cleveland, Ohio

College: Niagara (1968)

Pro Experience: 2 years in ABA, last year and a half with Texas

How Acquired: Trade with New York in 1969

Max Williams will talk about Manny Leaks at the drop of a red, white and blue basketball.

The Chaparral coach picked up the 6-foot, 8-inch Leaks from the New York Nets in mid-season two years ago for a fourth round draft choice and calls it "the best trade I've ever made."

Leaks, a college standout at Niagara, seemed to be going everywhere in general and nowhere in particular until he arrived in Texas. He had been drafted by the Kentucky Colonels, but was shuffled off to New York early in the 1968-69 season.

From the moment he joined the Chaps, Leaks was on his way to stardom. He helped Texas win 12 of its last 17 games in the final month of the 1968-69 season and last year developed into one of the American Basketball Association's most productive centers. He averaged 18.8 points and 12.5 rebounds for the Chaps, setting a club record for most rebounds in a season with 1,047.

With the acquisition of Gene Moore from Kentucky, Williams has flexibility in the post the Chaparrals never have had before. He has been working Leaks and Moore in a double post, but basically plans to alternate them at center.

Personal Highlights: Has B.A. Degree in sociology . . . Single.

EUGENE MOORE

"Geno" Age: 25 Height: 6-9 Weight: 245

Born in St. Louis, Mo., on July 29, 1945

Residence: St. Louis, Mo.

College: St. Louis University (1968)

Pro Experience: 2 years in ABA, both with Kentucky

How Acquired: Trade with Kentucky in 1970

Gene Moore is a key man in Texas hopes for a fourth consecutive playoff berth in the American Basketball Association's Western Division this season.

The 6-foot, 9-inch Moore was acquired by the Chaparrals in a summer trade that sent forward Cincy Powell to the Kentucky Colonels.

"Geno" has the height and weight necessary to jam up the middle on defense and make it more difficult for the league's bevy of small, quick guards to penetrate and for opposing frontliners to maneuver.

He responds well to coaching and has a willingness to accept constructive criticism. His agility enables him to play either center or forward, he has good shooting touch and likes to use his jumping ability to block shots for opposing players.

Moore has been prone to foul trouble, setting an ABA record last season by fouling out of 25 games with the Colonels. The all-time pro record is 26, set in 1952-53 by Don Meineke of Fort Wayne in the National Basketball Association.

But while Moore is in the game, he's been tough to handle. He averaged 17.7 points and 12.1 rebounds at Kentucky last year. In two seasons, he has scored 2,509 points and taken down 1,819 rebounds.

Personal Highlights: Named to ABA All-Rookie Team in 1969 . . . Single.

GREG WITTMAN

"Greg" Age: 23 Height: 6-8 Weight: 210

Born in Rockingham, N. C., on May 10, 1947

Residence: Sylva, North Carolina

College: Western Carolina Univ. (1969)

Pro Experience: 1 year in ABA with Denver

How Acquired: Trade with Floridians, Oct. 1970

Greg Wittman had little time to enjoy the sunshine of Florida before being traded to the Chaparrals in exchange for Charlie Beasley. Wittman, a rookie at Denver last season, was sent to the Floridians along with Larry Jones in an off-season deal that netted the Rockets Don Sidle and Larry Cannon. Now the North Carolinian has been traded again. The Floridians needed an experienced back-up guard while Texas needed another forward. And so . . . Beasley for Wittman. A natural forward, Wittman played center at Western Carolina during his first three college seasons. He moved outside his senior year and came up with his best campaign, averaging 21.5 points and 12.3 rebounds a game.

During his four years at Western Carolina, Wittman never missed a game. He led the team in rebounding for four consecutive seasons. Last year with the Rockets, Wittman played in 50 games and showed the potential to be an extremely valuable player. He has a steady shot and is an aggressive rebounder.

Personal Highlights: Three-time All Carolina Conference Star . . . All-Star High School Performer at Rockingham, North Carolina. He was recruited and played for Western Carolina coach Jim Gudger, the current cage mentor at East Texas State. Married to the former Judy Buchanan of Sylva, North Carolina, they have a daughter, Tiffany Leigh, 16 months old.

TEXAS CHAPARRALS 1969-70
INDIVIDUAL PERFORMANCES PER GAME

The following tables reflect the scoring and rebounding of the returning Texas front-court veterans and the scoring and playmaking of the Chaparral guards on a per game basis during the 1969-70 American Basketball Association regular season. Figures for Gene Moore, acquired in a trade with Kentucky, are based on his performances with the Colonels last season.

Texas Chaparrals All-Time Roster

Only two players—John and Charlie Beasley—still remain on the Chaparral roster from among the squad that started the 1967-68 season in the American Basketball Association. Cincy Powell and Riney Lochmann completed their third season last spring, but Cincy was traded to Kentucky in the summer and Riney retired from professional basketball to join the Converse Rubber Company.

In all, 30 players have made at least one appearance in the Chaparral lineup during the three-year history of the club. Listed below are the names of the players who have been in at least one regulation league game for Texas.
